

EFFICIENCY IS CLEVER RESTRUCTURING.

r CLEVER RESTRUCTURING

A clear structure without waste requires two things: breadth of vision and time. You can cultivate the first, but the second is a question of priorities. So we do it that way as well. We begin with the distant objective. Then, to ensure that these two threads have indeed been interwoven properly, we also rearranged the priorities. And the result? After just six months we had already exceeded our productivity targets. More or less made-to-measure!
